

BALTIMORE SYMPHONY ASSOCIATES / MARIN ALSOP FELLOWSHIP
*NEW FOR 2022-2023 SEASON***

DESCRIPTION OF THE FELLOWSHIP

The Marin Alsop Fellowship, made possible by the Baltimore Symphony Associates, will support young musicians from under-resourced communities in their musical studies by providing full scholarship BSYO tuition and a cash award of $300-500 for supporting expenses such as instrument lessons, rentals, music, and other musical needs. The intention is to support the participation of students of color (BIPOC) from under-resourced communities in the BSYO. The fellowship will be available annually to one or more students who qualify.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- 1) student(s) of color from under-resourced communities,
- 2) commitment to music and the BSYO, with demonstrated talent on an orchestral instrument,
- 3) financial need (financial documentation will be required if applicant is accepted and recommended for the fellowship),
- 4) willingness to comply with all the requirements of the BSYO (attendance at weekly rehearsals and scheduled concerts, desire to improve musically, and enthusiasm for the program).

APPLICATION AND AWARD CYCLE

The application cycle for the Marin Alsop Fellowship follows the BSYO audition cycle, with registration due by Wednesday, May 25 at 11:59 pm and the audition video recording due by Wednesday, June 1 at 11:59 pm. Results will be announced by late-June. The fellowship may be renewed for subsequent years pending an annual review and season audition.
